DIED.

DROUBAY—Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Droubay are called to mourn the untimely loss of their daughter Katy, a bright, strong, active girl 13 years of age, taken away through the dread disease, diphtheria, after an illness of only fourdays.

They lost a boy of the same disease only about a week ago, aged 11 years. Another son has had it but it is thought he will get well. Mr. Droubsy himself has had a very severe attack of diphtheria that lasted over a week. This is truly a sad blow on Mr. and Mrs. Droubsy. Owing to quarantine regulations the most anxious to assist and help them were hindered. The sympathy of friends are with them in their sad bereavement.
